"ENHAVIM"

The New Word is Now Revealed

Derivation of Word ENHAVIM

ENHAVIM is pronounced: on-ha-veem.

Say this simple phrase to remember the pronunciation:
"From Dream to Enhavim"

EN

"on, in, within, at, near" from Greek

HA

"breath" source of life, in Hawaiian

AVI

"aviv" spring in Hebrew; "vie" life, in French

VIM

"energy, power, vigor, strength, force" from Latin;
"to go after, pursue with vigor or desire" from Proto-Italic

NEW WORD ORIGIN

The use of phrases such as definite chief aim or chief aim, and words like mission, vision, purpose, and goals, are used so interchangeably and with so much perplexity, that the meaning gets lost.

There are few subjects so constantly riddled with confusion and misunderstood.

A new single word, replaces and combines.

ENHAVIM provides powerful and expressive clarity.
